ID de Contribution: 6   Type: Non spécifié

Random Schottky groups, spectral gaps and strong convergence

In this talk, we will review and discuss some recents results on the spectral gap of hyperbolic surfaces with infinite area, in a probabilistic setting. We will motivate and explain the notion of Laplace resonance and show how some tools of free probability can help in describing the spectrum in a regime of "large topology".

Orateur: Prof. NAUD, Frédéric