

Computing the distance to the set of unstable quadratic matrix polynomials

Miloud Sadkane

Université de Brest

`sadkane@univ-brest.fr`

This talk considers the computation of the distance from a stable quadratic matrix polynomial to a nearest unstable one in the discrete sense. The distance problem is recast as a palindromic eigenvalue problem for which a structure preserving algorithm is developed.