

Benoît PAUSADER (Brown University)

Asymptotic behavior for the cubic nonlinear Schrodinger equation on product spaces

We will consider the model case of the defocusing cubic nonlinear Schrodinger equation. When the initial data are smooth and compactly supported, solutions are global and exhibit a relatively simple behavior. When one weakens these assumptions, the behavior can become more complicated.