

KOCH Herbert

A continuous family of energies for the Korteweg-de Vries equation and the cubic nonlinear Schrödinger equation

The KdV equation and the cubic NLS equation are known to have an infinite number of conserved energies. I will explain the construction of a continuous family of conserved energies interpolating the classical energies.